Queries:

1. James Petery from Rochester, NY requested help in sorting out the Hiram Freers who lived in Lloyd. I was able to identify his Hiram's father and grandparents.
2. Ronald Rhodes wanted to know if 42 Vineyard Ave. was once a bakery. I located the building on the Sanborn fire insurance map. It shows a bakery in half of the building and an oven in the basement in front of the house.

Donations:

1) Art Upright donated 5 Highland postcards (one leather) and an old photograph of Smith's garage

Slave Cemetery:

1. No updates

Deyo Steam Mill

1. The new sign, funded by a grant from the Pomeroy Foundation, was unveiled on Oct. 2. I presented my talk "Factories before Electricity, Mills on the Twaalfskill" at the Highland Public Library on Tues, Oct. 13.

2. I researched the misspelling of the NYS historic "Town Organized" sign – the original misspelling in the cast letters was initially painted over. It was a cobbled mess, so when the sign was repainted, they just painted the original raised letters.

Fanny Reese State Park

1. No updates.

Digitization

1. We have an opportunity to use NYG&B's digitization equipment at Elting library to digitize some of Lloyd's historic records (at no cost to the town). I am working with NYG&B and Carol Johnson to determine which records to digitize and secure legal permissions.

I attended a meeting of the UC historians and the open house at Peebles state park where all the restoration of NYSP artifacts is done.
